WILLIAM AND ANNE BOYD (TWINS)

Anne Boyd, the eldest daughter of Peter and Marcella Boyd, and a twin of William, was born in Rosendale, N.Y., January 1, 1852. She was baptized at St. Mary's Church, Kingston, N.Y., January 11, 1852.

The 1870 census for Rosendale, N.Y. shows that she was living at home with her parents, was 18 years old and had not attended any school that year. Four months later, November 21, 1870, she married James J. Garry at St. Peter's Church in Rosendale, N.Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Patrick R. Brady with David Halloran and Catherine Smith as witnesses.

James J. Garry was born in County Meath, Ireland on May 8, either in the year 1846, 1847 or 1850 (three sources list three different dates). His parents were Patrick and Catherine Garry.

James J. Garry enrolled in Co. "D", 156th Regiment of the New York Volunteer Infantry with the Union troops during the Civil War. He enlisted for a period of three years on March 9, 1865. According to his military records and pension files he contracted typhoid fever while on guard duty in the swamps of Savannah, Georgia. He was a victum of bad water and damp grounds on which he slept while serving there. In later life, his disability made it difficult for him to sit or stand without help or walk without a cane.

Anne Boyd and James. J. Garry lived in Kingston, N.Y. after their marriage.

James J. Garry died in Kingston, N.Y., May 15, 1913 and was buried in St. Peter's Cemetery, Rosendale, N.Y.

Anne Boyd Garry died in Schenectady, N.Y., December 24, 1932. Her name appears on the tombstone of her husband, in St. Peter's Cemetery, but no dates are shown for her. It is assumed she is interred there.

Elizabeth Boyd, the fourth child of Peter and Marcella Boyd, was born in Rosendale, N.Y, August 25, 1859 and was baptized at St. Mary's Church, Kingston, N.Y. September 3, 1859.

The 1870 census for the Town of Rosendale shows that Elizabeth was listed a 8 years old (she was actually 10 according to her birth records) and was the only daughter of Peter Boyd who had attended any school that year.

She married Charles James Sweeney, October 6, 1880, at St. Peter's Church, Rosendale, N.Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O'Flaherty with James Boyd and Bridget Garry as witnesses.

Charles James Sweeney was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania about the year 1858. His parents were Charles and Margaret Sweeney (his mother's maiden name is not known, at this time).

During their marriage, Charles and Elizabeth Sweeney lived in Rosendale, N.Y. He is buried in St. Peter's Cemetery, Rosendale, N.Y. in Section D, Plot 92 (a plot owned by his father-in-law, Peter Boyd). The death certificate for Charles J. Sweeney listed cause of death as Pleuro Pnuemonia and the duration of the illness was 6 days.

After the death of her husband, Elizabeth Boyd Sweeney, left with four sons aged 10, 7, 6, and 2, worked in Rosendale and later in Schnectady, N.Y. as a housekeeper, seamstress and midwife in order to support her family.

Elizabeth Sweeney later moved to Ilion, N.Y. where she continued to work as a domestic and lived with her son, John J. Sweeney, at 10 Maple Place. She died there on July 31, 1940 at the age of 80 years and 11 months. She is buried in St. Agnes Cemetery in Ilion, N.Y.

He married but all that is known about his wife is that her first name was Mary. It is said that she was very dark skinned and thought to have been either French or Cuban and that she had a child by a previous marriage. Neither of these statements have been verified. Her mother-in-law, Elizabeth Sweeeny, sometimes "caustic", referred to her as "nigger".

James and Mary Sweeney lived at 67 Academy Street, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. for two years before James' death.

James J. Sweeney died at Mt. Venon Hospital, Mt. Vernon, N.Y., March 23, 1928 and is buried in St. Peter's Cemetery, Rosendale, N.Y. in Section D, Plot 92 (the plot owned by his grandfather, Peter Boyd).

It has been said that James Sweeney worked for the Roosevelts at Hyde Park, at one time, and was manager of the Ritz Theater, at the time of his death.

Nothing is known about his wife, Mary Sweeney. It is said that they had no children of their own.

2R John James Sweeney, a twin of John James Sweeney, was born in Rosendale, N.Y. March 26, 1884. He died shortly after birth. No records can be located about him.

John J. Gleason. No sponsors are listed on the copy of the baptismal certificate obtained from St. Peter's.

He married Adelaide King, the sister of his brother John's wife Anne, at St. Joseph's Church, Scotia, N.Y., November 15, 1916 by the Rev. J.H. Judge with Myrtle DeForest and Henry King as witnesses.

Francis A. Sweeney and Adelaide King were married in a double-wedding ceremony with Henry King, her brother, and Myrtle DeForest.

Adelaide King was the daughter of Henry King and Barbara Wolfel King (See King Genealogy). She was born in Glenville, N.Y., March 5, 1892 and was baptized at St. Joseph's Church, Schenectady, N.Y., April 3 1892 by Rev. J.W. Wibbe with John Boeing and Adelaide Boeing as sponsors.

Francis A. Sweeney died in Ilion, N.Y., December 1, 1941 and is buried in St. Agnes Cemetery, Ilion, N.Y., next to his mother, Elizabeth Boyd Sweeeney.

Adelaide King Sweeney died in Ilion, N.Y., of cancer, March 16, 1948 and is buried in St. Agnes Cemetery, Ilion, N.Y. She had been employed by the Remington Arms Co. for 21 years.

6 years old and Catherine was 3. Of all the children, that year, only James and Elizabeth had attended school. Peter Boyd was listed as a citizen of the U.S. who could vote.

As a side note, when Peter Boyd made the trip over from Ireland, aboard the "Henry Clay", there was a Timothy O'Brien, aged 33 listed on the ship's manifest. In 1870, in Rosendale, just three houses away, lived a Timothy O'Brien, aged 53, who was born in Ireland. The same Timothy O'Brien?

Nothing else is known, at this time, about their lives. Marcella Davis (Davie according to her Death Certificate) Boyd died in Lefever Falls, in the Town of Rosendale, N.Y., June 4, 1889, at the age of 61 years, 1 month and 4 days. Cause of death was listed as Cancer of the breast for which she had had for about 1 year.

Both Peter and Marcella Boyd were buried in St. Peter's Cemetery, Rosendale, N.Y. in Section D, Plot 92 which was owned by Peter Boyd. A visit to the cemetery showed that there were no markers on the grave area but church records show the following interments in that plot:

Ellen Boyd	December 15, 1873
Marcella Boyd	June 4, 1889
Charles J. Sweeney	December 20, 1891
Peter Boyd	December 30, 1898
James John Sweeney	March 23, 1928

According to a letter from St. Peter's this may not be a complete listing of interments. Often, interments were unrecorded.

Emigrated from Ireland 1849

PETER AND MARCELLA DAVIS BOYD
EARLY 1860'S
ROSENDALE, NEW YORK
STANDING: WILLIAM AND ANNE (TWINS)
SEATED: PETER, ELIZABETH AND JAMES

Peter Boyd was born in Ireland about the year 1824. His Certificate and Record of Death shows that his father's name was Peter Boyd and that he, too, was born in Ireland. His mother's name was not known, at the time of his death. The earliest records concerning him deal with his voyage to America. He sailed from Liverpool aboard the ship "Henry Clay", landing in New York City on August 18, 1849.

The information contained in the ship's manifest shows that Peter Boyd, then 26 years old, came over from Ireland with an Ellen Boyd, then 22 years old. (It is not known if Ellen was a nickname for his wife, Marcella, or if she was another relative).

Peter Boyd was listed as a farmer in Ireland, but this may not have been true. There was a travel ban on skilled labor leaving Ireland. England was trying to man its Industrial Revolution, so any Irsihmen with skills were kept in Britain, therefore, many Irishmen listed their occupation as farming in order to be allowed to emigrate.

An advertisement from Tapscott's American Emigration Offiee lists the ships that one could book passage on in order to go to America. Listed sixth is the "Henry Clay" with a tonnage of 3000. The "Henry Clay" actually weighed in at 1207. The ship "Garrick", shown weighing 2000 ton actually weighed 895. A passage from "Going to America", by Terry Coleman, explains that the Tapscott brothers were "systematic villains, whose fraud began with their advertisements." It was probably easier to get people to book passage on larger ships.

In America, we first find Peter Boyd with his family in Rosendale, N.Y. The 1870 census for Rosendale shows Peter Boyd in residence there with his wife and eight children. Peter Boyd was 46 years old and was a Laborer (the census tells where but it is illegible) while his wife, Marcella Davis Boyd, was 42 years old and "Keeping House". The records tells us that they were both born in Ireland and had parents who were of Irish birth. The details concerning their children show that William and Anne (their first set of twins) were 18 years old and living at home; Peter was 13; James was listed as 10 (he was actually 8); Elizabeth listed as 8 (she was actually 10); Ellen and John (a second set of twins) were

At this time, I have no further information on the surviving members of the Boyd family, outside of my mother's immediate family, the Sweeneys, and their children. For the Sweeney descendants the reader should refer to the Sweeney genealogy. There are more than 30 great-grandchildren and many more great-great-grandchildren of the orginal Boyd immigrants and I do know of two who are pursuing the Boyd line. Charlotte Boyd English, daughter of James Boyd (grandson of Peter Boyd of Ireland) and Jack Boyd, son of Joseph C. Boyd (grandson of Peter Boyd of Ireland) have been of invaluable help over the years and have a continuing interest in this project.

However, I must give much credit to Ambrose Boyd, grandson of Peter Boyd of Ireland. He wrote many a letter to me, sharing as much information as he could and supplied me with information that made it possible for me to find Peter Boyd on the ship "Henry Clay" in 1849. Ambrose Boyd died before I was able to get a complete copy of this book to him, but I was able to share most of my information with him and will always remember that his contributions made this book as successful as it is.

Dear Mr. Cunningham:

I am enclosing the certificates we have on record that you requested. Prior to 1860 the sacraments were not administered on a regular basis at St. Peter"s. These sacraments were given at St. Mary's Church, Kingston, N.Y. If you write to them they should have the records you need.

I also checked our cemetery records. Peter Boyd owned Plot 92 in Section D of St. Peter's Cemetery. Recorded as interred there are the following:

Ellen Boyd Dec. 15, 1873
Marcella June 4, 1889
Charles Sweeney Dec. 20, 1891
Peter Boyd Dec. 30, 1898
James Sweeney March 23, 1928

This may not be a complete list of interments in this plot. Often interments were unrecorded.

There will be a $5.00 charge for this information. I hope it will be of some assistance to you in your research.

Sincerely yours,

Among passengers:

Ellen Boyd	" 22	"	"

After arrival at N.Y. of HC, 4-25-49 and allowing 10 days to re-provision, she would have left for Liverpool May 6, 1849. This leaves 84 days to return to Liverpool, ten days to take on provisions there, load passengers and cargo etc. This leaves a balance of 74 days which divided by two leaves 37 days each way. This, according to available information is reasonable time thus the HC could not have made another voyage between 4-25-49 and 8-18-49.

It would seem to me that the arrival of John Boyd in April may have some relationship to the arrival of Peter and Ellen in Aug. Older brother, cousin or other relative? How about the Davis' ?
